A tribute and resource guide to

BLACK LIVES MATTER

Google Black Lives Matter Murals Across America and you will find tributes to the movement in most large and many small towns, international cities, streets and corners everywhere. A few are pictured on the following pages. It has been heartwarming the last few weeks to see so many ethnicities come together in places around the world to demonstrate support for equity. It has been gratifying to be able to finally hope that this time, after 55 years, additional progress in civil rights may be at hand if everyone works together to keep up the momentum. 400 years of subjugating segments of society in so many ways is ENOUGH!

Resources, ideas and suggestions are included on page 3 for all of us to help promote racial justice, criminal justice reform, equality for all and just plain old common decency. Only headlines and topics are listed with the links to some amazingly useful information such as Racial Equity Tools, bail funds, legal support and mutual aid groups, organizations seeking to bring justice to the world or divert police funds, locating legitimate and/or local non-profits, petitions, “know your rights”, book and course recommendations, supporting black-owned non-profits and businesses, and volunteer opportunities.

the wave of the future.
There are more of US
than there are of them,
BLM will prevail.
